workmate's or a fellow church member's elbow wouldn't be a good idea, but we can let them know that we know that they're frustrated, we're sorry we can't fix it for them, and we love them unconditionally. It works wonders for me when Yannie does it. Who knows, you might even get a treat.

Richard's Ramblings

I shout at my computer. Perhaps some of you do, too. It's usually when I'm trying to fill in a badly designed online form on an unresponsive site. Of course, the computer doesn't hear me (well, it does nowadays with Siri and Alexa, but one hopes that they don't let on). More to the point, the unhelpful airline or government site doesn't hear me, and they're the folk who should be getting their digital systems right.

At home (Cedar Creek home for a few more weeks), Yannie (pronounced Yarnie, you'll meet her soon), our German Shepherd, comes straight over to me while I'm screaming into the cyber-void and nuzzles my elbow to say, in her non-verbal doggie lingo, "It's alright, not worth getting worked up about, I love you even if Coles Flybuys (or whoever) doesn't."

The compiler of Proverbs (15:1) tells us that a soft answer turns away wrath. Perhaps nuzzling our neighbour's or a loved one's or a

Thank You

Marion and family would like to thank everyone who visited, sent cards, flowers, phone calls and attended Kevin's farewell. Big thanks to Amelia, Pop and family for all their help. Also thanks to the Church Choir who sang Kevin's choice of Hymns. Thank you also to John Short who visited Kevin in hospital and for his support to myself and family. God bless you all.

Bunnings
Sausage Sizzle

We have been allocated a sausage sizzle slot at Bunnings Domain on Saturday 20th July. This is a highly profitable opportunity which will need a team of volunteers for each time slot event. If you could help please sign on the Roster which is at the front of the church. If you are unable to help but would like to make a donation towards the purchase of sausages etc, or donate soft drinks please see Graham Fraser or Anne Brooke-Taylor..
